EDITOR'S NOTE

Fall is in the air, aerification, seeding, renovation, etc., is in progress or finished and the first frost is close at hand (I hope!).

Many of us are in some stage of the budget process for the 1991 season. Those of us who have assistants who aspire to become superintendents should allow their input in the process. As superintendents, our years of experience in the budgeting process can equip the next generation of turf professionals to plan a reasonable, well thought financial guide for their employees.

Another facet of the budget process is the support we can give to the suppliers who support us. You can find a page full of them in each newsletter. They care about the profession, provide information, education and guidance to each of us. This group of local suppliers provide us with the best value for our tight budget dollars.

Lastly, consider your position in the budget process. Are you "beaten down" through years of denied requests? Maybe a new approach would be more successful — use pictures, videos, course tours on "busy" days, records, etc., to get your point across. Use the phone to investigate the tactics used by other superintendents. We all need someone else at some point to provide a new perspective, or at least a friendly ear.

Samuel Snyder, CGCS.

HOST SUPERINTENDENT PROFILE

Mike Yenny has been the superintendent for the past seven years. Mike is single and lives in Hummelstown with his dog Bert.

HOST COURSE PROFILE

Parkview was opened in 1930 and designed by Maurice McCarthy. Rolling hills, tree lined fairways, and a career that comes into play on eight holes, makes this a challenging and testy little course. Daily playing 6,100 yards and a par 70. Greens are PGA and Bent (heavy on the PGA) fairways and tees are PGA and rye.

GOLF COURSE SUPERINTENDENT SALARY STATISTICS REPORTED

Last November GCSAA conducted an attitude audit of all members. As a part of that audit, data was collected on member salaries.

Over the next three issues of Newsline some of the results will be reported. These salary figures are made available only to GCSAA members.

All figures are percentages, and Class A statistics include both certified and non-certified members.

MET AREA GOLF TOURNAMENT

Mike Benedict still needs two players for the Met Area Golf Tournament. The CPGCSA is co-sponsoring the players. The tournament will be played at St. Andrews G.C. in Hastings, N.Y. It is a scratch and handicap event. Please call Mike at (717) 469-2400.

ATTENTION!!

The PSU bus trip has been changed! Syracuse has decided to bring their band for the PSU game, so our tickets were recalled. We now have tickets to the Temple game on October 6. Ticket deadline is Sept. 26!

Our Joint Meeting with Philadelphia will be held Oct. 1, 1990 at Green Valley G.C.

We will be conducting our CPGCSA surveys at the Parkview meeting. Be sure you fill one out and return it. Our results may have a great impact for our local superintendents and assistants.

Many thanks to our host superintendent(s). Bob Jones, Jeff Jones and also Jim Jones for a very comfortable, enjoyable meeting in August at Hidden Valley. We all really enjoyed the course, the great food and the relaxation! Thanks again!
